CMS lifts sanctions against Cigna's Medicare Advantage, drug plans

The Centers of Medicare and Medicaid Services has lifted enrollment and marketing sanctions against Cigna, allowing the insurer to resume marketing and enrollment for its Medicare Advantage and prescription drug plans.

On June 16, Cigna received notification from CMS that the marketing and enrollment sanctions imposed on January 21, 2016, were lifted, according to the Securities and Exchange Commission filing.

Effective immediately, Cigna may begin enrolling beneficiaries with effective dates beginning July 1.
